The College of Optometry at the University of Missouri-Saint Louis invites applications for full-time non-tenure track positions with an opportunity to join a dynamic and progressive academic community. Successful applicants will receive a nine-month appointment. Initial rank for the full-time clinical appointments will be commensurate with prior experience, qualifications and individual interests. There is the possibility for a summer instructional assignment if mutually agreeable.

Applications are encouraged from a variety of areas including:

- Cornea and Contact Lenses
- Eye and Vision Research
- Sports Vision and Performance
- External Disease and Dry Eye
- Ocular and Systemic Disease including diagnostic and therapeutic procedures

Qualifications - All positions require:
- Ability to contribute to the development, evaluation, and enhancement of optometric education
- Ability to contribute to the mission and strategic priorities of the College of Optometry
- Open to development and use of innovative instructional strategies and technology
- Commitment to effective dissemination of evidence based practice and translating research into clinical care and education.
- Demonstrated knowledge in area of emphasis and contemporary issues in optometry and healthcare.

The positions require a Doctor of Optometry (OD) degree, license to practice optometry in Missouri, a commitment to work with diverse student and patient populations, and alternative teaching styles such as learner-centered and case-based approaches. A license to practice in Illinois is desirable. Candidates with a Masters or Doctoral Degree with a record of scholarship or who have completed an ACOE-accredited residency are preferred.

Responsibilities - Successful candidates for clinical ranks are expected to provide instruction in the professional program and serve as a mentor for student research. The primary areas of emphasis depend upon prior accomplishments, qualifications and candidate interests.

Those who wish to be considered a candidate for a position must provide an application that includes a letter of interest, curriculum vitae and a list of four professional references. Formal submissions via the University website: www.umsl.jobs. Applications will be accepted and reviewed immediately. The positions will remain open until filled.
